Officer Coughlan Must Explain His Hiring Thousands of Little Lives Can Be Saved of That White Herse.

The Steed Driven by the Man Who We Are All Ready to Receive the Contri-Called for the Doctor.

CHECAGO, May 25.—The Times of this morning has the following in connection with the Cronia murder mystery : 'The Times within the last twenty-four hours has come into possession of a most important and most startling chain of facts. "The white horse and the buggy which carried the man who lured Dr. Cronin to his death have been discovered, and the man The ordered this rig, according to the story of the livery stable keeper, is a detective in the employ of the Chicago police force, and his name is Daniel Coughlan.

"On the morning of Saturday, May 4, Coughlan called at the livery stable of Patrick Dinan, at 280 North Clark street, and gave notice that "a friend" would call about 7 o'clock that evening and that he was to be given a borse and huser.

o'clock that evening and that he was to be given a horse and buggy.

"That evening a man called, was given the buggy and white horse, and at about 7.15 o'clock the man left the stable with the ris and drove north on Clark street.

"According to Frank Scanlan, it was five minutes thereafter when the stranger drove to 470 North Clark street and informed Dr. Cronin that he was wanted at Sullivan's ice-

'The white horse and the buggy were returned to the stable by Coughlin's friends at 9, 20 or just two hours and fifteen minutes after they had been hired.

'Mr. Dinan describes the man as being about thirty-five years of age and of ordinary height and build. He had a week's growth of beard on his face and wore a soft felt hat with a narrow turned-up brim.

'Mr. Dinan says he thought nothing more of the matter until Monday morning, when the papers began to publish Dr. Cronin's mysterious disappearance and the peculiar connection of a white horse and a buggy with

He went at once to the Fast Chicago avenue station to tell Capt. Schaack of the curi-ous coincidence. He found Detective Coughlan, who took him aside and cautioned him not to say anything about the affair of Baturday night because, not being on good terms with Dr. Cronin, some people might think he had something to do with the disappearance.

'Mr. Dinan was still uneasy. He told Capt. Schnack his story and insisted that a full report be made to Chief Hubbard. But becoming suspicious that the report had not been made he called on the Chief himself.

Capt. Schaack, who was seen about the matter to-day said that Coughlan had been instructed to get the fellow who drove the horse and put him under arrest.

The detective did so, but then, without any authority, let him go again.

In view of later developments the police would give anything if they again had the driver of that white horse.

In addition to this, and more sensational than all, is the undoubted fact that in the possession of Dr. Cronin was an officiavit made by a well-known Irish-American that he heard one of the parties interested in these and other disclosures say that Dr. Cronin must be put out of the way.

Two weeks ago last Saturday night, between 8.30 and 9 o'clock, Mertes left his house to visit the grocery at the corner of Ashland arenue and Otto street, which is only a short block south of the Carlson cottage. As he neared the cottage a buggy containing two men rolled to the edge of the ditch. One of the men, described as a tall and athletic man, sprang from the buggy and ran up the front stairs of the cottage, the deep of which was thrown open before he even knocked for was thrown open before he even knocked for

A CHORUS OF APPROVAL. The Great Need for Free Physicians Em phasized by Those Who Know.

THE EVENING WORLD herewith presents some interviews touching its proposition to raise a popular fund to provide a Corps of Free Physicians for the sick children of the tenements during the hot Summer season :

SUPT. MURRAY APPROVES THE IDEA. Police Supt. Murray, when asked what he thought of the scheme of sending physicians to the tenement-houses to look after the ailing little ones, said, promptly : " I think it is a good idea. The children in these thickly crowded houses suffer a great deal during the hot Summer months, and anything that makes them better is good. It is a creditable thing to THE EVENING WORLD to conceive such a plan, and it ought to work very advantageously to the children. I should think everybody would approve it."

JUDGE DUFFY WISHES IT SUCCESS. The "Little Judge," Patrick Gavan Duffy, fixed his keen eye on the reporter and re-

"It is an excellent scheme. THE EVENING World is always doing something bright and new. Let it send all the doctors it can to help the sick children. A hundred wouldn't be too many. They will probably do the children more good than Gerry's men will, Oh, yes! It is a good idea and I wish it suc-

Judge Randolph B. Martine said: "Excellent thing! Some of these poor children in the tenement-houses grow up to be very good citizens. Taking care of them when they are sick is a help to their growing up. But they will be shy of the doctors at first until they get to know them."

GEN. RING: "A FINE IDEA." Gen. Horatio C. King's kindly blue eye softened a little as he heard the question. Then he said feelingly : "Poor babies! How can there be any difference of opinion about the merit of anything that looks to their relief or well-being. Read 'Jinx's Baby.' That will make you sympathize with the poor little tackers. It is a fine idea."

INSPECTOR STEERS'S GOOD WORDS Inspector Steers showed a good deal of sympathetic feeling on the subject.

" Everything that helps the poor, great or small, is a good thing. It is one of the finest things in human nature to feel for and to help the unfortunate. I think this relief for the suffering children of the tenement-houses is a beautiful charity."

PRESIDENT ROBB APPROVES. Mr. J. Hampden Robb, President of the Park Commissioners, answered the reporter by saying: " There is only one thing to say about such a scheme, and that is that it is good. The city ought to do such a thing. but if THE EVENING WORLD'S readers, by private enterprise, help to alleviate the sufferings of the young people in the tenements it is praiseworthy. The plan is a good one." CONGRESSMAN QUINN SAYS "SPLENDID."

Congressman John Quinn-Splendid! One of the things that we have not half enough of. There are many, very many children who suffer during the heated term because their parents are too poor to provide medical

"A GOOD WORK." E. T. Reynolds, Clerk of the Board o Coroners I think Tax Everino Wonld is foing a good work. There is too evident necessity for something of the sort. Robert Black, Clerk of the Coroner's

ING WORLD is full of schemes, and they are always good ones. DESERVING OF SUPPORT. E. H. Bornneman, grocer, at Third avenue and Twenty-seventh street-I think any one who comes forward with an offer of $100 towards the expense of caring for the tenementhouse children medically must be good. The public will back it up. THE EVENING WORLD deserves praise. DR. CONWAY PAVORS IT.

Dr. Conway, Coroner's Physician-Put me down as favoring it or anything else which will tend to lessen the bot-weather miseries of the children of the poorer classes.

Dr. G. P. Cooley, jr.-I think it is an excellent idea. A great deal of good should be accomplished by THE EVENING WORLD CORPS of physicians, and I believe will be. A CAPITAL SCHEME.

Dr. George D. Hamlen, of the Bellevue Hospital Corps—Yes, indeed; the scheme is a capital one, and a world of good can and, no doubt, will be done. There is a vast field for that variety of self-sacrifleing work in this city, and many little lives will be saved and much suffering alleviated by THE EVENING World's plan.

HE WILL CONTRIBUTE. Michael Martin, for eighteen years an officer of the Supreme Court-No one knows better than I from my long experience in New York the abject poverty which exists in some quarters. I read with interest and gratification the reports of Dr. Cox, the physician paid by THE EVENING WORLD to serve the sick children of the poor, and I say now that I will contribute my mite to this most worthy object. Every $2 note helps, and l see that, with its accustomed generosity, THE EVENING WORLD starts the ball with $100, which is in effect, I suppose, that it will pay the expense of one of these physicians."

WILL BECKIVE SUBSTANTIAL ENDOWMENT. Lawyer James J. Martin-There could be no more practical charity devised. THE EVENING WORLD'S plan of providing a corps of physicians to visit the homes of poverty, seeking out and ministering to the little sufferers should and will receive substantial indorsement from our citizens. I noted last year that Dr. Cox, heart and soul in the work, carried not only medicines to his baby patients, but food, clothing and delicacies sent to the office of your paper by kindhearted people from their superabundance THE EVENING WORLD hits the nail square on

Dr. Herman Lambert-The only wonder is that such a scheme as THE EVENING WORLD suggests has never been tried before. The Board of Health cannot attend to all those савев.

CORONER LEVY'S SYMPATHIES. Coroner Ferdinand Levy-I am heartily in sympathy with the proposition. Any one who has any knowledge of the poor in the tenement-houses can appreciate how much ork of this kind there is to do. IT WILL BE SUPPORTED. William Hubel, Third avenue-Of course I am in favor of such a work of benevolence. In such a case THE EVENING WORLD cannot fail to receive the support which it deserves. L. Melbourne, Chickering Hall-My experience in charitable enterprises convinces me that The Evening World has hit upon the right plan. Give the poor children a chance.

IT WILL SUCCEED. Deputy-Coroner W. T. Jenkins-The success of THE EVENING WORLD'S physician last Summer ought to be a sufficient reason for undertaking such a work as this on a larger

CORONER MESSEMER APPROVES. Coroner Messemer-You can put me down as in favor of such a movement as THE EVEN-ING WORLD suggests. The children of the poor do not receive adequate care, and anything which would tend to benefit them

NEEDED FOR YEARS. Prof. William L. Wood-This is just what the city has needed for years. Let the good work go on. Dr. August Weber-In the crowded tenement-house districts the value of careful medical supervision, especially in the Summer months, cannot be over-estimated. The plan of THE EVENING WORLD has my cordial approval.

THE DOCTORS ALL FAVOR IT. Dr. Abraham Meuer-As a member of the medical profession I can appreciate the necessity of this work among the poor children. They cannot have too much care and attention.

A. Hanniker—I am heartily in accord with the ideas of The Evening World on the subject of care for the poor children.

A repetier of the Evening World visited the Christon-House this morning, and found Acting meeter of McClellan in charge.

"It is perfectly true that the skipper of Mr. Gerry's vacht, the Electra, defied Capt. Toric's when ordered to change his anchorage, and the cowner of the yacht has thereby rendered himself liable to a fine of $100 under the laws of the United States. I know nothing further of the particulars, but you can probably find out more by making inquiries at the Law Division."

A visit was made to the second floor, where the Clerk McAvov was found preparing a report based upon Capt. Tozer's letter, which was transmitted this afternoon to the Secretary of the Treasury. An answer is expected to-morrow, when the case will be placed in the hands of the United States District-Attorney, who will proceed to inforce the penalty against Mr. Gerry.

The laws with regard to the anchorage of vessels in the channels of the rivers and harbors are very strict, and it is said that they propose to show Mr. Gerry that he is not entitled to any greater privileges than other ship owners.

The Captain of the Electra is George E. Weeks, It was said at Mr. Gerry's office to-day that he was on his way to New Haven on board his yacht.

Some of the items of expenditure charged against this fund were of $500 paid to Albert A. Henschel Nov. 24 last, $200 paid him Jan. 2, $250 on Feb. 8, and $100 on March 31. These sums were all paid to Henschel for "professional services."

Mr. Clark ascertained that the man was not a lawyer when he received these payments, he having only been admitted to the bar in March, and the payment of March 31 was for services rendered by him as a counsellor during a month preceding that time.

On being questioned Henschel acknowledged that he was not admitted to the bar until the end of last March. He stated furthermore that though he was only appointed towards the end of June, his appointment was made operative from the lat of that month, and he was placed on the pay-roll and received compensation for that month.

After he had been closely questioned regarding his appointment and the fees he had received for professional services, when he was not a lawyer, Mr. Henschel presented his resignation, which Mr. Clark accepted at once.

Corporation Counsel Clark expressed himself very much astonished at the facts disclosed by Henschel and placed his confession in the form of a type-written statement. He said it seemed very peculiar that his predecessor should have allowed payment out of the contingent counsel fees fund to be paid to Henschel.

IMPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, PLAINFIELD, May 25 .- A bad smash-up on curred on the Central Railroad of New Jersey at the Richmond street crossing at 7.53 o'clock this morning. The west-bound coal train stopped near the crossing to allow the Easton express to discharge its passengers at the station. A Philacharge its passengers at the station. A Philadelphia and Reading coal train was coming along on the same track as the first coal train, but some distance in the rear.

Just how it happened it is impossible to say, but the Philadelphia and Reading coal train, drawn by engine 938, crashed into the rear of the coal train which was standing on the track. There was a terrific shock, and instantly thisteen coal cars were piled up in a huge mass. They were badly smashed and tha splinter and coal was in all directions.

Brakeman Honnegar, of the Philadelphia and Reading coal train, was hurled twenty feet in the air. Marvellous to relate, he was not killed, but was very badly shaken up and bruised.

Engineer Patrick Dugan, of engine 938, remained at his post, and was considerably bruised.

for several hours. All travel was over the south siding.

The railroad authorities are conducting a rigid investigation. Some one is undoubtedly to blame.

The two freight trains were running very close together, and when the first one stopped it should have sent a flagman back in accordance with the railroad regulations.

There was so much confusion at the time that it could not be learned whether this had been done or not. Engine No. 938 had a very heavy train and it was possible that it was unable to hold it back quick enough to prevent the collision. It is considered remarkable that nobody was killed.

Sick Headache. Although I had spent many dollars for differentials of remedy, without any relief, as intimate friend of mine advised me to use Burdock Escape Sitters. He had been a great sufferer from some headache, and I had been troubled the same are for four long years. I suffered from early In the morning until late at night. All the sleep had was between I2 and 2 octock in the morning-one of the morning until late at night. All the sleep had was between I2 and 2 octock in the morning-one of the morning of

I was troubled with the sick headachs for several years, and after using five bottles of B. B. I was entirely cured. I also was troubled with kidney difficulty, which was entirely cured at the same time. I car act speak too highly of the mediane, and have recommended it to others with good results.
